DEATHS.

On Tuesday, 25th inst., Mr. JOHN JACOBS, in the 53d year of his age.
On the 28th inst., at Paris, Mrs. CLARA B. CATLIN, wife of GEORGE CATLIN, Esq., the eminent traveller, so distinguished for his researches into Indian history and antiquities of America, and so universally known and respected in Europe and his native country, the U. S. of America. The devoted friends who watched the last moments of this most amiable and interesting woman with intense anxiety, still cling to a faint hope, deceived by a moral energy never surpassed, and the most unflinching serenity of temper, that (had it been the will of Heaven) they might have been permitted to rescue a life so precious; but, alas, this gentle, affectionate, intellectual being was destined never more to revisit the land of her birth; and what was earthly of so much worth and loveliness has passed away, whilst the immortal spirit has ascended to its kindred skies.
"None knew her but to love,
None named her but to praise."
Galignani's Messenger, Oct. 29, 1845.

For the Columbian Fountain. IMPROMPTU—TO A FRIEND.

BY REV. NEWTON HESTON.

Think not that this world will always be bright,
Nor thy pathway be ne'er clouded with night;
False are its lights, and delusive its charms!
And hope, like roses, may fade in thy arms!

Think not that sorrow will ne'er sadden thy heart,
And love with its fire ne'er from thee depart;
The stream that's now smooth will ruffled become,
As thou passest away from youth and its home!

This is the net-work of man's chequered day—
The pleasures of earth will soon pass away!
But there is a pure clime where change is ne'er known,
And happiness reigns triumphant alone.

O! in that bright land thy spirit may dwell,
And thy voice with rapture its choruses swell,
While light, life and joy thy person surround,
And flowerets carpet that heavenly ground!

O, then, may thy purpose be firm in the Lord—
Thy heart with the joys of religion be stored;
And, as in great triumph thy Saviour appears,
He'll take thee away from this valley of tears!

'Mid the brightness and joy, and splendor of heav'n,
To thee a scarlet-wreathed crown shall be given!
Then upward creation thy spirit shall rise,
And gaze on the plains of the star-sprinkled skies!

A LAWYER'S OPINION OF LAW.—A learned Judge being once asked how he would act if a man owed him ten pounds and refused to pay him. "Rather than bring an action," said he, with its costs and uncertainty, "I would give him a receipt in full of all demands," and after a little rumination he added—"Aye, and I would send him, moreover, five pounds to cover all possible costs."

He very respectfully invites a return of his old and esteemed customers, and solicits the patronage of the public generally to the Temple of Fashion, No. 1, on 8th street, near Pennsylvania avenue.

With the most competent assistants, and every description of materials that can render his operations a luxury, instead of a dull, sleepy process, he flatters himself that to him will be accorded the credit of keeping pace with the times in all that has a tendency to add to the comfort and improve the appearance of the outer man.

Not only in the face has Nature made
Its comeliness and beauty to abound,
But in the scissors' edge and razor's blade
The aids to loveliness are ever found.

WM. ALBAUGH, A. M., Tutor and Teacher in Preparatory Department.

The course of studies in Pennsylvania College is as extensive and substantial as that of any institution in the country. The Preparatory Department provides for instruction in all the branches of a thorough English business education, in addition to the Elements of the Mathematics and Classical Literature. The College course is arranged in the four classes usual in the institutions of this country.

The government of the students is as energetic as their circumstances seem to require. They attend at least two recitations a day, and the Faculty contemplate increasing them to three, Church and Bible Class on the Sabbath, and are visited in their rooms so frequently as to preclude the danger of any great irregularities. It is believed no institution in the United States has more exemplary young men in connexion with it. They are all required to lodge in the College edifice, special cases excepted.

The annual expenses are—for board, tuition and room rent, during the winter session $61 87 1-2; for the summer session, $41 87 1-2; washing, $10; wood, $3 00. Total expense, $116 75. Boarding can be had in town at $1 25 per week.

There are two vacations in the year, commencing on the third Thursdays of April and September; each of five weeks continuance.
The summer session will commence on Thursday, the 22d of May. The annual commencement takes place on the third Thursday in September.

The Trustees have recently made various arrangements which will increase the efficiency of the Institution. They have increased the number of Professors and provided for the most ample instruction of the students.

Professor Baugher and Haupt are prepared to board boys and to exercise a special supervision over their studies and deportment, and Parents who may prefer placing their sons under their care, will be secure in regard to their proper management, under arrangements such as pertain to the family circle.
